

ADHD Foundation Conference 2018 Programme
“ADHD, Neurodiversity and Mental Health”

THURSDAY 8TH NOVEMBER 2018

9:00- 9:30	Coffee and registration
9:30- 10:00	Opening address - ADHD Foundation
10:00- 10:30	Key note 1 - Professor Anthoni Ramos Quriga, Head of Department of Psychiatry, CIBERSAM Hospital, Universitari Vall d'Hebron, Barcelona, Spain - “Using mindfulness and virtual reality as treatment for adults with ADHD - results of a clinical trial”
10:35- 11:05	Break out 1 - Dr Khalid Kalim - Optimising treatment for ADHD (Prescribing Clinicians only) Break out 2 - Polly Mackenzie - The DEMOS report for Government of The Economic Impact of ADHD and the need for Investment in ADHD Services Breakout 3 - Julie Jakeman RMN - Best Practice Models for Nurse Led ADHD clinics
11:05- 11:35	Break and exhibition
11:35-12:05	Key note 2- Professor Sandra Kooij, Dutch Expertise Centre Adult ADHD at The Hague - ‘ADHD, Late Sleep and Health’
12:10- 12:40	Break out 4 - Dr Rob Baskind - “ADHD in generic mental health services (adults) and masking and misdiagnosis” Break out 5 - Dr Thomas Martin - Diagnosis of ADHD in ‘High-Performing’, ‘High IQ’, ‘Successful’ people - challenges for patients and clinicians” Breakout 6 - Dr Phil Carey and Kalum Bodfield, Liverpool John Moores University
12:40- 1:50	Lunch / exhibition - lunch seminars and live music QB Tech - Lunch Time Symposium - Tony Doyle and Charlotte Cooper - “An opportunity to trial the QB Check ADHD Screening Tool”
1:50- 2: 20	A parent and young person’s experience of ADHD
2:25- 2:55	Keynote 3 - Dr Emma Derbyshire - “ADHD and Brain Health”
3:00- 3:30	Keynote 4 - Dr Joanna Martin, Cardiff University - “ADHD and genetics; how this informs future developments in the identification of and treatment of ADHD’
3:30- 3:50	Break and exhibition
3:50- 4:20	Keynote 5 - Angus Walker, ITN News Team and Rory Bremner - “ADHD in the public eye”
4:20- 4:40	Closing comments - Dr Tony Lloyd

ADHD Foundation Conference 2018 Programme
“ADHD, Neurodiversity and Mental Health”

FRIDAY 9TH NOVEMBER 2018

9:00- 9:30	Coffee and registration
9:30- 10:00	Opening address - ADHD Foundation
10:00- 10:30	Key note 1- Professor Barry Carpenter - “Creating Mental Wealth in Children with ADHD”
10:35- 11:05	Break out 1 - Dr Tony Lloyd and Rachel Keeton, ADHD Foundation - “The effectiveness of parent support programmes in schools” Break out 2 - Lisa Rudge, ADHD Foundation - “Strategies to support learners with Tourette’s Syndrome” Break out 3 - Mary Walsh - “A Head Teacher’s perspective on multi agency approaches to supporting mental health in schools”
11:05- 11:35	Break and exhibition
11:35-12:05	Key note 2 - Catherine Roche, Place 2 Be - ‘Mental Health in Schools’
12:10- 12:40	Break out 4 - Professor Barry Carpenter - “Girls and Autism” Breakout 5 - Stephen Simpson - “The effectiveness of outdoor learning on ADHD and mental health” Breakout 6 - Vicky Dawson, CEO of The Sleep Charity - “How to support good sleep hygiene in families with SEND children”
12:40- 1:50	Lunch / exhibition Ethypharm Symposia - “Xaggitin: new Medication for ADHD” Dr Ruwan de Soysa (Prescribing Clinicians only) QB Tech - Lunch Time Symposia - Tony Doyle and Charlotte Cooper - “An opportunity for teachers to trial QB Check ADHD Screening Tool for Schools”
1:50- 2: 20	A parent and young person’s experience of ADHD
2:25- 2:55	Keynote 3 - Fintan Connolly, CEO of Take Ten “Using Assistive Technology to Support ADHD and Anxiety”
3:00- 3:30	Keynote 4 - Dr Simon Bignell, University of Derbyshire - “ADHD, ASC and Asperger’s”
3:30- 3:50	Break and exhibition
3:50- 4:20	Keynote 5 - Andrew Whitehouse, SEND Consultant - “ADHD to PDA and Back Again: Diagnosis or Presentation?”
4:20- 4:40	Closing comments - Dr Tony Lloyd